We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age saying

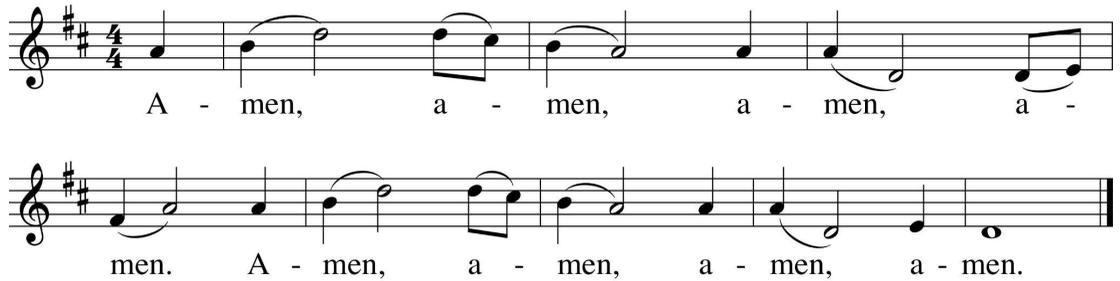

...we praise you and we bless you:

We praise you, we bless you,
 we give thanks to you,
 and we pray to you, Lord our God.

During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine and the people gathered in worship. The Great Amen is when the congregation with a unified great voice concurs with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "Amen" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the greatness of the congregation's response.

Presider Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever.

A - men, a - men, a - men, a - men. A - men, a - men, a - men, a - men.

THE DISMISSAL

The presider dismisses the people who respond

People Thanks be to God.

Liturgical notes

- The opening acclamation, introduction to the gospel, and Postcommunion Prayer are from Enriching Our Worship, a supplement to the Book of Common Prayer.
- The Eucharistic Prayer differs from that printed in the Prayer Book. The Episcopal Church's 79th General Convention, in 2018, authorized (Resolution D078) a trial service of Holy Eucharist in "expansive language." This means, in this context, that the use of gender-specific pronouns and words such as "Lord," etc., are minimized, but are by no means eliminated.
